

THIS WEBSITE contains the original English texts of the book “Verasdonck 600 years”, written by J.P. Verasdonck & J.P. Verasdonck, published in Singapore (2004).

These texts are on this website as PDF – file on each related web page linked to the British flag.

After 2004 new information was found about the various ASDONK places, the knights of ASDONK, the EARLS of RODE and TAXANDRIA as well as some history of the various villages, where a Verasdonck family branch lived for at least 3 centuries. These new PDF-files are written in Dutch and are, for the time being, published on this web site.

We are working on English translations of these texts.

These PDF – files can only be used when referring to the source: www.Verasdonck.nl
